Lehigh Runners to Train in Open.

South Bethichen, Pa. Dec. &—Winter training for the track men at Lehigh University, especially the sprinters and distince men, will be more riscouss this year than ever, and a good deal of this training will be done outside. To facilitate this a circular board track was laid this week around a portion of the football field. The work of training or the football field. The work of training outside is expected to find its true results next spring when the track senion opens.

a bill of sale for Eddie Collins, star second baseman of the Athletics, and he has left behind $50,000 in real money. He has also left a contract cailing for $50,000 more, but while the first $50,000 was in cash, and deposited to the credit of Connie Mack, the second $50,000 will be paid in installments covering the next five years. That is, Comiskey has contracted to pay Collins $10,000 a year for five years, and it is reported that this is so much more than Mack actually was paying him, no matter what gossip has said in the matter, that Collins is tickled to death to think he is going to the White Sox.

Comiskey had just time to pack his grip, after completing this deal, besecond baseman of the Athletics, and Tells Gotham Scribe He Does Not Believe Walter Has Jumped.

By WILLIAM PEET.

It was not until Manager Griffith reached New York for the big baseball confab that he unbosomed himself about the Walter Johnson case. Gotham scribes cornered the Old Fox last night and asked him what he had to say about the Feds grabbing off the Washington ball club, meaning, of course, Walter Johnson. "I do not believe that Johnson has actually signed a Federal League con-tract, in spite of the reports," said Griff. "He may possibly have accepted terms pending the deposit of $40,000 (or two years' salary) in the bank.

"I know that Johnson made up his mind long ago that he would not sign veteran outfielder of the Nationals, who was yesterday released to the New York Yankees.

Confeyville, Kans. last week, and then announced that he had signed the announced that he had signed the pitcher for two years. You can't make me believe that Tinker had $40,000 with him, that it was put in the bank, and that a contract satisfactory to Johnson was drawn up and signed in Griffith made the statement printed in the foregoing to the New York baseball writers, but the Old Fox must have by Count of 150 to 130.

Ball writers, but the Old rox must have been trying to "kid" somebody, for Johnson has already telegraphed and written friends in Washington that the report of his signing with the Feds for two years, is true.
